Imagine, if you will...

Thanks to Measure 98 funds (High Success Act), we continue to grow our CTE (Career and Technical Education) programs. We've been cleaning up a corner of the back area of the school, behind the bus barn. We will be getting rid of the ugly, old, leaking containers, putting a spiffy, new greenhouse where they sit, and getting two new, smaller containers. The old field house is being re-sided and reroofed to become the wood storage for the shop. Great things are happening at Yoncalla.

Imagine two new, pristine containers here, ready for storage for the greenhouse.

These two will go away and a greenhouse will replace them.

Oregon Battle of the Books!

On April 9, Oregon Battle of the Books held their virtual regional battle. Yoncalla Middle School had a team of Thayden, Riley, and Bella competing. They did an amazing job with questions about the content of the books and the "In Which Book" questions. Out of 12 Douglas County schools, they made the top 8 teams. This allowed them to advance to the afternoon brackets. In the first round, YMS was defeated by the team who went on to win the day. This was the first experience with OBOB for two of our team members. They have a lot to be proud of.

Our preschoolers designed and set-up leprechaun traps around the playground to see if we could catch him! Glitter and other clues were left behind, but we did not get him this year. Lucky for us, he left behind delicious gold coins for all to enjoy.

Friendships are continuing to grow and kindness is blooming here at Yoncalla Preschool!

Fire School

April 6-8, four students and Ms. Wilde attended Fire School at Camp Tadmor near Lebanon. The students learned about PPE, building hand lines, hose lay, compass and pacing, starting back fires, and the pack test to become a wildland firefighter. Some new friends were made, good food was eaten, and lessons learned. Can't wait until next year!
