Two YHS Students participate in 2024 Miss Douglas County

On Sunday March 3rd, two Yoncalla High School students - Expanded Options Senior Karissa Kilgore and Sophomore Riley Templeton - competed in the 2024 Miss Douglas County Scholarship Program at Umpqua Community College in Jacoby Auditorium.

Each contestant was scored on Personal Interviews, Health and Fitness, Stage Interview, "Her Story", and Evening Wear.

For Her Story, Karissa Kilgore performed a Jazz Dance and Riley Templeton shared a personal story on an act of kindness that changed her life.

When asked about their experiences Riley stated "My experience was absolutely amazing. I got to join a different sisterhood that I didn't even know existed. I am so proud of myself and all the other girls out there competing. I cannot wait to do it again next year."

Karissa stated that, "It was a fun experience. I loved hanging out and getting to know Riley." Riley Templeton was fourth runner up and the recipient of a $400 scholarship as Miss Douglas County Teen 2024.

OHSET UPDATE

This weekend brought success to the YHS OHSET. Kieanna Glover qualified for state in break away. Break away is pictured in the top photo. The rider ropes the steer, drops the rope and the time stops. Kieanna and her horse, Sister, have a fastest time of 2:07 this year. The second picture is an example of steer daubing.

Daniela Sanchis Cabanes, an exchange student from Spain, and Ambra Piras, from Italy, are also participating in OHSET. Daniela will find out at the next meet, if she will qualify for state in the keyhole event. Online student, Eden Foltin, also participates in events such as jumping, showmanship, and barrels.

TyeAnn Foltin, the OHSET coach, jokes that they doubled their team this year but they had to recruit from a couple of foreign countries.
